

SEMI-WEEKLY INTERIOR JOURNAL.

VOL. XIX.

STANFORD, KY., TUESDAY, JUNE 30, 1891.

NO. 34

BARBOURVILLE, KNOX COUNTY.

—The citizens are preparing for a celebration on the 4th.

—Mrs. A. K. Cook and sister, Miss Annie, the charming daughter of Col. John Dismann, visited Pineville Friday and Saturday. Major L. W. Freeman, editor of the News, delivered the Masonic oration on St. John's day. Miss Cordie Colson, one of Miss Dismann's youngest daughters, was in the city visiting last week.

—Mr. Alex. Sever, the general and big hearted traveling man for J. M. Robinson & Co., of Louisville, writes a letter from this place to the Mountain Echo giving a statement of the joint debate here last Monday between Judge J. H. Tinsley, of this place, and David C. Gibson, of Middleboro, which the Echo was pleased to accept as correct. Mr. Sever is a democrat of the rebel sort and this is the first instance of when the Mountain Echo was ever known to take the statement of a democrat as being true, but circumstances alter cases, you know, and the circumstances in this case were such that not a republican in the whole county would have written such a letter, notwithstanding the fact that their late State convention at Lexington recommended the adoption of the new constitution.

—If the Mountain Echo had not made a visit to this section and seen the real sentiment of the people, he would not question so severely the veracity of Judge Gibson's information as to how the people of Knox county would vote on the constitutional question next August. He refers to the judges' information as "they," and says that "they" can not be faulted. Now we would like to state in behalf of a majority of the people of this county of Knox, Hays and Whitely, that there are more "they's" than the Mountain Echo ever dreamed of. There were in this section, on the day of next August "they's" will come out and vote solidly against that rotten document called the new constitution. In establishing the fact that Knox county is for the new constitution the Echo calls attention to Mr. Alex. Sever's letter from this city to that paper. Now we would like to ask the Echo if it didn't write Mr. Sever a personal letter requesting a statement of the condition of affairs in this section and suggest the nature of the answer it desired, and state that it was making "a special feature" of the new constitution in this campaign? It is true that Col. John Dismann has said he would vote for the constitution, and so has Jos. D. Black expressed a like intention. But the majority of Knox county's prominent men are opposed to it, some of whom are Hon. John H. Wilson, D. K. Rawlings, C. E. Davidson, Judge J. H. Tinsley, H. C. Faulkner, Col. A. H. Clark, Dr. D. P. Herndon, Judge S. Golden, Dr. J. S. Baughman and a host of others. But the Journal's correspondent has never heard a single farmer or day laborer express himself in favor of this document, and in addition to this the colored population of Knox as well as Bell and Whitely will vote to a man against it.

CHURCH AFFAIRS.

—Rev. J. C. Caldwell, pastor of the Presbyterian church at Elizabethtown, has accepted a call to Holly Springs, Miss.

—The High Bridge menagerie will open to the public July 1st and continue 10 days. Talmage will perform on the 11th and 12th.

—A Lutheran pastor at Owensboro was personally assaulted by a former member whose expulsion the pastor had brought about.

—Rev. H. Witt Talmage is soon to lecture on "Is There a Hell?" This is a burning issue with most men and some women. —Glasgow Times.

—Rev. M. M. Riley, pastor of the Main street Baptist church in Bowling Green, has resigned to become vice-president and secretary of Georgetown College.

—A drummer named Fife attempted to play the role of Sam Jones at Winston, N. C., by denouncing from the pulpit all the society people who had engaged in a dance and got a caning for his impudence.

—The Christian church of Stanford desires through the Interior Journal to extend grateful thanks to all persons who in any way contributed to the success of the State Sunday-school convention.

—Rev. G. W. Bolling advertises an 8-day meeting at the Baptist church here, beginning the 3d Sunday in July and continuing till the 4th Sunday, inclusive. Many of the eminent colored divines will be here and excursions will be run from Louisville.

—The colored Methodists have set apart next Sunday for a grand rally to raise funds to remodel their church, which is much needed. A basket meeting will be given and all lovers of Christianity are asked to be present and give a helping hand. The pastor, Rev. E. Wilson, has been appointed to ask aid of the white friends and will call on them at their homes and places of business.

MT. SALEM.

—Arch. Goodie, of Hamilton county, Texas, is now visiting among his old associates in this section. There is nothing his head with silver threads.

—Miss Bette Lyon, who has been employed to teach the Highland school this year. This is a judicious selection, as Miss Bette has a fine reputation as a teacher.

—Emmett McCord, as usual, is handling lands, and is circulating freely around this place. J. L. Bradshaw has been very sick for several days. Miss Rachel Bradshaw will teach the public school at Laboress, Casey county, this year.

—Calling on Parbert Fisher is a few days since he exhibited to us for inspection a new contribution to the census, it being of the made persuasion. This is doing well, as this is the third specimen of that kind, he having married four years ago at the age of 18.

—The return of W. T. Richards and Miss Lucy Vincent from a two weeks visit to Miss Lyon's relatives in town county is daily expected. There are many rumors that that lady has taken on herself the yoke of a Benedictine and is now enjoying her novitiate in the Queen City and various other places.

—Dan Harris seems to be in ill luck. His barn lately burned up. He lost his pocket-book with $100 in a few days ago. He searched all day for it, and was on the point of visiting some of his neighbors' stables looking for it in his head, when he started another neighbor out along and found it for him.

—Winter before last, when Mrs. Hamilton and her family were staying in Iowa, her youngest son, Walter, formerly known as "Pat," was taken with a gripe and has been suffering with it ever since, so much so that he is unable to do any work. His friends are very anxious that his illness might result seriously. But we are now happy to inform his many friends that his physician lately changed remedies and since then his improvement has been marked and rapid, so much so that there is every prospect of "Pat" soon being himself again.

The Teachers' Route to Toronto

A rate of one fare to the round trip has been made by the Cincinnati, Hamilton & Dayton Railroad and its connections to Toronto and return, on account of the National Educational Association meeting to be held in that city July 1st-17. The C. H. & D., the only line running direct from Cincinnati to Detroit, is the through-link between the south and the north and with sleeping cars on all night trains and chair cars on day trains, it invites the patronage of all teachers and their friends who want to go to the meeting comfortably and expeditiously. Ask your local agents for tickets via Cincinnati and the C. H. & D. For rates and full information address any agent of the C. H. & D. or E. O. McCormick, general passenger and ticket agent, Cincinnati, O.

Good's Springs.

A grand picnic will be given at this beautiful resort, July 4th. Will insure everybody a nice time who attends this picnic. These are very fine picnic grounds, situated in a beautiful valley on the banks of Dix River, with plenty of shade. Among the many attractions will be a good dinner and supper, boating and dancing, which will be free in the morning. Everybody invited.

J. F. Cook, Proprietor.

THAT OPEN CLAUSE.—The power of defeating any proposed amendments to the new constitution will rest with its senators who may be opposed to it, as "such amendment or amendments" must be agreed to by three-fifths of all the members elected to each House before the measure can be entered on the journals. If the disputed points of the constitution excite as much controversy in the legislatures as they did among the members of the convention, it will be a difficult matter to get a three-fifths vote in favor of any amendment. This is an open clause with a vengeance. —Harrodsburg Democrat.

She spent five minutes at a druggist's directory and then sweetly purchased a two-cent stamp, remarking: "I don't need it at present, but when persons use a directory I think they ought to purchase something, however trifling."

The new $2 silver certificates will be printed in a bright green and carmine instead of dull green and light brown. Senator Foster's admiration for calico seems likely to be impressed upon our national currency.

There are 300,000 colored votes in Ohio and not an office-holder among them. The anti-negro record of the Harrison administration is something remarkable.

You can bestow love and kindness on your fellow man without any fear of impoverishing yourself. Indeed the more you give the more you will have to give.

GRAB ORCHARD.

—Miss Melba Warner has been engaged to teach the school at Watts Chapel.

—The L. & N. will open the night of June at this point July 1st. So Mr. J. L. Nelson, who will have charge thereof, arrives.

—Miss Alvira Hays, who died of consumption at Mt. Vernon Saturday, was a sister of Mrs. Granville Hays, of this place. Our clever undertaker, J. H. Stephens, furnished the casket, and she was buried Sunday. She was 37 years old.

—Misses Maggie and Fannie Cochran and Lura McBire, a trio of Paint Lick beauties, ate the guests of Miss Anna McChes. Mr. Frank Dutton has accepted a position in the Western Union office at Middleboro. Mr. R. Lee Davis and sister, Miss Kate, have returned from a week's visit to relatives in Harrodsburg. Miss Lura Watson, Laneaster's fair postmistress, spent Sunday with Mrs. D. B. Edmiston.

Next week Mr. D. B. Edmiston, democratic candidate for the legislature, will make a tour of the county for the purpose of meeting the people who have honored him as their standard bearer in August. He will deliver no speeches and do no "treating," but give you instead the old-fashioned democratic grip to compare you with a fellow feeling that we have you with his kind when his name is put in the poll books election day.

—Hon. Henry H. Houston, republican candidate for lieutenant governor, and Hon. W. H. Miller, constitutional convention delegate, spoke to a good sized audience here Saturday. The former criticized the usual criminal and civil judgments, and I closed with an eloquent appeal for the new constitution, while the latter, in his convincing way showed up his hundred reasons why the people should turn their backs on the old organic law and support the new. Much interest was manifested in these sessions, and both speakers were given the closest attention.

—The Masonic barbeque and picnic here Wednesday was a colossal success, it a big crowd, plenty of children and spirit stirring eloquence have anything to do with making an affair successful, speeches were delivered by Judge Carter, Richard Martin, N. G. Wilcox, Felix Rogers, an other high Masons, which the vast throng took as a sort of sauce to the good things with which they stuffed their great baskets. A hop at College Hall wound up the festivities, and everybody went away happy. The committee of arrangement and the good ladies, who so ably assisted in the management of the tables, deserve the thanks of every man, woman and child present.

—Mrs. Amelia Pleasant, wife of Harvey Pleasant, Esq., died Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock. Her death was not unexpected. For years she had been a sufferer of that vital-racking malady, chronic rheumatism, and several months before her death was compelled to give up her crutches and cease locomotion altogether. She was about 73 years old, or 15 years younger than her venerable husband, whose picture appeared in the I. J.'s octogenarian column recently, and who, with two children, Mrs. Dan Stagg and Mr. Henry Pleasant, are left to mourn her loss. She was a member of the Baptist church, and a type of those good, pure-minded, domestic women whom we of this day and generation delight to honor as the contemporaries of our mothers. After funeral services by Eld. J. G. Livingston the remains were deposited in the family burying ground.

—Hickman White, a Barbourville negro, barely escaped being lynched for attempted rape on a daughter of B. B. Golden.

—A law has just gone into effect in Missouri requiring storekeepers and others to furnish their women employees with seats.

—Thos. Tisdale, who left his family in Canada 31 years ago, returned the other day to find his wife married to a third husband. They will resume former relations.

—Michigan University "graduated" 620 persons from the various departments, the largest number ever turned loose at one time from an American institution.

—"Under the new constitution the republicans will have a good chance to get into power in this State. The provisions will assist us." —Internal Revenue Collector Albert Scott, of Louisville.

—Dr. L. R. Yates sends us a copy of a Kansas City paper giving a full account of the murder by a deputy sheriff of Sam Wood, the noted politician of Stevens County, Kansas. The killing was the outcome of the Hay Meadow massacre.

At Pleasure Ridge Park, near Louisville, in a fight with Clay Stewart and Dudley Alsop, Sidney Smith was fatally shot. Stewart received wounds from which he may die. The three are well-to-do young farmers, and had all been paying attention to the same young lady.

LONDON, LAUREL COUNTY.

—The city dials have put in three street lamps at much needed places.

—The democrats are going to put out a candidate for the senate in this district. It is time they were doing it.

—The Knights of Labor will give a picnic at Pittsburgh on the 4th of July.

—Mr. James Province is down very low with erysipelas. Mr. James Hackney is confined to his bed with the flux. The little child of Mr. Bay Province has been very sick for several days. Mrs. Martha Craft, who has been very sick at Mrs. Pearl's for some time, is much better.

—Deputy Collector C. M. Randall has just returned from a raid into nearly all the mountain counties to break up the illicit distilleries he could find. The trip resulted in his destroying three stills, lots of whisky and hundreds of gallons of beer. Two of the stills were in tar of Letcher.

—"Guns."—"Big" George Chestnut died Friday at Dr. N. M. Seales'. George was well known all over the county and had many relatives and friends. He had typhoid fever. Mr. Tom Mason, an old citizen, died at Pittsburgh Friday. A friend of Mr. John Hobbs, of this place, died of cholera infantum Friday and was buried Saturday.

—Charles Lane, a miner living at Pittsburgh, was accidentally shot in the abdomen Thursday at Alton and died immediately. He had placed his shot gun in one of the bank cars and got in himself when another miner came along and threw some tools in which struck the hammer of the gun, discharging it.

—Mr. Henry Dakest, who has the contract for building a wack and rock fence in front of the court-house, is now nailing the rock on the ground and will soon begin to put it in position. He took the work for something over $100, when those who seem to know say it is worth almost twice as much. Let the good work go on in our progressive town.

—Joe Joplin, the republican candidate for the legislature, was here Friday and went to Pittsburgh Saturday for the purpose of attending the call meeting of the knights of labor and farmers alliance for the purpose of nominating a candidate of their own. Mr. Joplin did not succeed in getting an endorsement as he expected, but they instead endorsed C. W. Fagan, a republican of his county. Rockcastle, if Rockcastle will turn loose some good democrat now and stick to him, Laurel will do her duty and something will be mighty certain to happen that would be for the public good of both. Come on!

—George T. Farris and W. A. Parsley are home again from their business trips. W. R. Hardin, Evan Jones and Charley Catching have returned from letting mail routes. Miss Sallie Mahan and Mrs. Green, of Danville, Misses Emma Garrard and Lucy White and Mr. Will Murphy, of Manchester, and Miss Minnie Elliott, of Kirksville, were a happy party at the Riley House Friday. Miss Elliott was on her way to Pineville and the other parties were bound for Manchester, to which place Mr. R. C. Ford accompanied them. A dance was given in their honor Friday night. Mr. Hayward will resume his duties as depot agent on July 1, after a month "off," enjoying himself in the west and at his former home in Indiana. H. A. Roundtree is out on a trial trip letting mail contracts.

MATRIMONIAL MATTERS.

—Charles Stewart Barnell and Mrs. D'Shea, his paramour, were married in London Thursday.

—This announcement, which comes on a beautifully engraved card, will cause some hearts that we know to grow inexpressibly sad as they think of what might have been:

Dr. Gilbert D. Greger, Elizabeth Pagan, married June 24, 1891, Louisville. At home, Park City, Utah.

The doctor has won a treasure. May he guard it with undying devotion.

DEATHS' DOINGS.

—Mr. J. C. Hays has received intelligence of the death of Mrs. Joanna M. Hays, wife of his brother P. F. Hays, which occurred at Honey Grove, Texas, last Wednesday, of cancer. Mrs. Hays was the second wife of Mr. Hays and was a daughter of ex-Treasurer Davidson, of Frankfort. She was an excellent woman and a devoted member of the Presbyterian church. Only one child, now Mrs. Lucy Colton, survives her.

—A babe was struck by lightning and killed while in its mother's arms at Lowell, Ark., but the mother was not hurt.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria.
When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria.
When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria.
When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

PERSONAL POINTS.

Mr. J. B. Foster's little son Hays, is very ill of diph.

Mrs. J. C. McClary is spending the week at Hale's Well.

Mr. John Blount, Jr., was down from Covington a couple of days last week.

Mrs. Owens, of Louisville, is visiting her relatives, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Wray.

Mr. J. C. Saxon, of Danville, was up yesterday. See his notice of farm for sale.

Mr. C. A. Birk and wife, of Pineville, are at her mother's, Mrs. Mary Jones.

Mr. Charles D. Wiggins, back from a visit to his mother, Mrs. Mary Webb, at Paris.

Mrs. O. J. Chow and Mrs. J. F. Cover went to Lexington yesterday to attend the Chautauque.

Mrs. Mary Lee suffered a stroke Sunday and is very ill at her father's, Mr. T. J. Hatcher.

Mr. J. B. Hines, of the L. & N., with headquarters at New Orleans, is visiting his host of friends here.

Mrs. J. S. Hendley, of Washington, is the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Englehart.

Misses F. L. Thompson and David Pointer, Mt. Vernon merchants, were here yesterday on business.

Mr. Matt Wiggins, of Middleboro, was down yesterday to see his little son, who has something like diph.

J. B. Cook, of Cumberland Falls, was here Friday and informed us that a good crowd was gathering at his delightful summer resort.

Mr. M. Livingston writes us to change his paper from Cincinnati to Crato Orchard, where his wife will spend the summer.

Mr. John M. Crato, who is now a full fledged physician, will arrive this week to practice his profession. He is a homeopathist.

Mr. R. S. Tucker, a fine old citizen of the West End, received a stroke of paralysis a day or two ago and is in a critical condition.

Mr. J. A. Hallerman, of the Louisville Times, accompanied by his wife and baby, passed up to Crato Orchard Saturday to spend a few weeks.

Mrs. I. H. Higgins and Mrs. M. L. Wakenfield, of Bloomington, Ill., arrived Saturday to see their brother, Mr. J. M. Wray, who we are glad to say is better.

Misses Mary and Kate Curtis were guests of Misses Sallie and Florence Flora. The latter will be their guests the last of the week and take in the Green Briar picnic on the 4th.

Col. D. W. Timm, a brother of Mrs. P. P. Summelleys of this place, has been nominated by the democrats to represent Madison in the next legislature. An Alliance man is his only opponent.

Mr. J. W. Brown, late of Mt. Vernon, writes from Aransas Harbor, Texas, that his family has arrived safely and are delighted with that part of the Lone Star State. Of course they can't do without the L. J. and Mr. Brown's letter was to order it to his new home.

Col. J. G. Chaddock, of the Paris Kentuckian, who never misses an important gathering, religious or political, showed up the last night of the convention and was the guest of Dr. and Mrs. J. G. Carpenter. We were busily engaged in getting out the last paper when he stole quietly into the office and out again almost before we knew it.

CITY AND VICINITY.

THE MANAGER of the INTERIOR JOURNAL Base Ball Club is making arrangements for a couple of games on the grounds here on Saturday next, July 4th. Our next issue will state what club or clubs they will cross bats with.

THE MANY stockholders hereabout of the First National Bank of Florence, Ala., will be glad to learn that the failure of the Florence National Bank does not affect it in the least, except that its business will increase. The cashier wires Mr. A. A. McKinney that the First National is all right in every particular and daily growing stronger.

TO TEACHERS.—Examination for white teachers, Friday, July 3rd, at 9 A. M. sharp. Please come in time. W. T. McClary.

While working with a twine binder, Dick Penny caught his hand in a cog-wheel, tearing a couple of fingers apart and otherwise badly injuring it.

TAXES.—Sheriff J. N. Menfee notifies the tax-payers that he is ready to receive their taxes, and hopes every one will try to be the first to pay.

Four drunken and disorderly conduct and having a couple of women of his own color, Bill Singleton was fined $10 in Judge Carson's court yesterday morning. After working out his fine he will be tried for carrying concealed weapons.

The dispute has led into error with reference to the readjustment of salaries of third class postmasters in this section. Several of them are increased. At Lancaster, Miss Ella Watson's is increased from $1,100 to $1,200. Danville gets an increase of $100 and so do Harrodsburg, Lawrenceburg, Middleboro, Pineville, Richmond, Somerset and Winchester. Stanford remains as last year.

SALVAGED A BONE.—George Dimwiddle, chief clerk at Mr. D. G. Slaughter's Green Briar Springs, was down Sunday to have Dr. Carpenter remove a bone from his throat. While eating a piece of chicken that morning he accidentally swallowed a bone 12 inches long which not only pained him greatly but gave him much alarm. The Crato Orchard doctors tried to relieve the young man of his trouble but failed to do so and it was necessary for him to come to this place to be relieved at the "house of contention."

DECEASED.—Will Tom Pence, son of Eliza Pence, of Rowland, had his head severed from his body by a freight train 15 near Corbin Friday night. Mr. Pence was working on 34 and was sent to tag 35. Worn out and sleepy, it is supposed that he had fallen and with the rail for a pillow, dropped into a nap, other portions of his body were badly mangled and the corpse presented a sickening sight. It was brought here and prepared for burial by Mr. J. C. McClary, Undertaker. Hufman's assistant, Mr. Pence was under 20 but was engaged to be married shortly to a lady at Maywood.

HALE'S WELL.—A couple of days at Hale's Well again proved to the writer that there are wonderful virtues in its water, which comes in cooling draughts 28 feet from the bowels of the earth. Mr. Benben Flora, the clever proprietor, has put things in nice shape, and the main building and the cottages look all the more for their coats of white wash as they nestle in the shade. Mrs. Flora sets a splendid table, her handsome daughters, Miss Sallie and Florence, do all in their power to make the time pass pleasantly to the guests, and on the whole Hale's Well is more attractive than ever before. It is barely and cheap and the wonder is that our citizens do not patronize it extensively.

THE HOPE.—Had the music been good the impromptu hop on Friday evening would have rivaled the grand "semi-annuals" that the Merry Bachsellers are noted for giving, but as it was, it was a most enjoyable occasion and a fitting finale of a week of festivity. There were at least 40 young ladies who participated in the Terpsichorean revel and a fairer or lovelier lot could not be found were the vast domain between Cape Cod and Kalamazoo searched. Attired in full evening dress, these 40 favored fairies, assisted by the chivalry of this immediate section, made a scene that caused many an old head to long for the days of his youth that he might take part in the merriment and with thought only of the dance, trip the light fantastic to his heart's content. Besides our hey of handsome "home" girls, the following young ladies from a distance were present, who added greatly to the pleasure of the evening as well as to the beauty of it: Misses Julia Yager, Bessie Bernard, Louisville; Misses Flora Wheatley, Anne Lou deJarnette, Georgia; Misses Mary and Annie Pickett, Shelbyville; Miss Ella Tualoy, Barbourville; Misses Mariah Cook, Mamie and Carrie Currey, Lancaster; Misses Kate Cook, Anna Reid, Lou Drye, Hustonville. It was 3:30 before the music stopped and even at that late hour the happy young folks left the hall with reluctance.

THE 4th of July picnic at Green Briar Springs will be a grand affair and every body should go.

A snowed which was both needed and refreshing cooled the torrid atmosphere some yesterday afternoon.

PROSE.—Mrs. Mary Bell Adams writes that she will give a free picnic at old Dripping Springs on the 4th of July. Everybody invited to come and bring their dinner.

NEW FIRM.—Having purchased of S. P. Stagg his interest in the firm of Stagg & McRoberts, Lask of my friends and old patrons a continuance of patronage I have heretofore received. Very respectfully, W. H. Higgins.

DRINK.—The storm of Sunday afternoon lightning struck a tree on Mrs. Susan Binkley's farm, killing a couple of valuable mules that were standing under it. There was a severe storm in the Hubble neighborhood and for an hour the rain fell in torrents. The dust wasn't laid though in Stanford.

JOHN W. WALLACE swore out a warrant yesterday for assault against Rowan Santley, who he claimed had struck his son Will so as to produce brain fever. Dr. Reid swore, however, that as the lick was on the shoulder that could not have produced concussion of the brain. The youth did not deny that he struck the blow, but said he did it because Wallace had lied on him. Judge Carson held the defendant in $50 bond to the circuit court.

THOSE two well-known farmers and gardeners, Fatty Summelleys and Brighty Ferrill, are preparing to make a mint of money this year and it looks now as if they are on the right road to do so. Realizing the high price paid for Irish potatoes and the growing demand for cabbage and tomatoes, they rented 25 acres of land from Mrs. Sue Baughman and put half of it in potatoes, 8 acres in cabbage and the remainder in tomatoes. The potatoes and cabbage are looking splendidly while they have tomatoes as large as hen eggs and some of them nearly ripe. This is perhaps the largest garden in this section and will very probably prove the best paying one.

FARM AND TRADE ITEMS.

J. H. Swope sold to a Lexington party a fancy road mare for $200.

J. H. Stephens sold to a Madison county party a 3-year-old gelding for $200.

At Chicago Jockey Britton was killed by Miss Dixie falling. The horse was fatally hurt.

FOR SALE.—Yoke of large work oxen, well broke, 1 thoroughbred Holstein bulls. W. H. Miller.

D. N. Prewitt bought of Chas. Spillman 75 hogs at 5 cents; of Wm. Gooch 60 at 11 and 10 of John Fogarty at 4, all for delivery last week in August.

A. T. Summelleys bought of Sam Aetion 14 1/2-pound hogs at 31 cents and of Buchanan & Davis 20 lambs at 4 and 4 1/2 of various parties 20 calves at 2 to 2 1/2 cents per pound.

The News says there never was such a peach crop as is now budding the trees to the ground on Muldraugh's Hill. For miles and miles can be seen orchard after orchard groaning under the weight of the luscious fruit.

Last week was a fine one for wheat harvesting and the farmers got in their work well. The average was fully up to the average, and the yield will be about 12 bushels to the acre. Some sales of new wheat have been made at 75 and 80 cents.

E. W. Lee sold to W. T. Robinson 200 mountain ewes at $4. D. N. Prewitt shipped Thursday 6 car-loads of lambs, 82 pounds average, to Cincinnati, for which he paid 5 to 5 1/2 cents. He shipped 8 car-loads from Lancaster Tuesday.—Advocate.

D. N. Prewitt bought of I. S. Tevis 200 lambs and 200 each of A. R. Deany and Arch Walker, to be delivered by July 10, at 51. Prewitt & Lynn will handle this season 5,000 lambs, for which they will pay the farmers about $32,000. The lamb crop now brings the farmers more than their hogs used to.

This tariff atrocity has forced down the price of Ohio wool in one year from 24 cents to 31 cents. We have this year imported four times as much wool of a character similar to the Ohio wool as we did for the like period last year, and the importations of all kinds of wool have more than doubled.—Enquirer.

Attention is directed to the notice of the Garrard county fair which appears in this issue. It will be held July 17 and 18 and the exhibition promises to be even more successful than last year, when it delighted everybody. The premium list is enlarged, no entrance fee for stock will be charged and no such word as fail will be known.

The Climax says that one Richmond merchant shipped 18,000 dozen eggs in the last seven weeks, paying 12 1/2 to 14 cents for them or a total of $2,340. Then the elongated interrogation mark adds: This is no exaggeration, but eggactly the facts in the case, showing that the eggperiment of running a large produce house in Richmond is, as he expected it would be, a profitable one.

Squire J. S. Murphy writes: As indicating the wheat crop of Lincoln county you might say that it is known that about 14,000 pounds of twine have been used, averaging 1 1/2 pounds to the acre gives about 10,700 acres cut with twine binders; which estimated to yield 10 1/2 bushels per acre, gives 112,000 bushels. If half as much more has been bound with straw we should then have 168,000 bushels as the crop of the Lincoln county for 1891.

LANCASTER, GARRARD COUNTY.

An unusually large number of young ladies will visit Lancaster during the fair.

At last accounts James L. Duncan, who has been quite ill at Atlanta, Ga., was greatly improved.

The Lancaster Hop Club will entertain at the opera house Friday evening, July 17. Saxton & Trust will furnish the music.

Mrs. Dr. Fisher has commenced the erection of a beautiful residence on Lexington street, between the college and E. W. Lillard's.

At a meeting of the directors of the Garrard County Stock Fair it was decided to hold the fair on Friday and Saturday, July 17 and 18. The list of premiums offered is unusually liberal and the managers have gone to work with a determination that insures success.

By an arrangement entered into by the pastors of the various churches, services will be had at only one of the churches on Sabbath night during the summer months. The first of these meetings will be held at the Christian church next Sunday night, when Rev. Cook of the Methodist church will preach.

Mr. and Mrs. T. S. Farris have taken rooms at Dr. Wm. Hufman's. Wood G. Dunlap was in town Saturday. Clyde Landrum has accepted a permanent position as operator at Central Covington. John S. Hopper is recovering from a short spell of sickness. Eph Higgins is in town. D. M. Lackey and Col. Fautken are here from Madison county. Mrs. Walker Landrum has returned from Richmond.

The large grain elevator, near the K. C. depot, was destroyed by fire about 3 o'clock this morning. When discovered the entire house was ablaze and none of the contents was saved. The building was owned by W. H. Kimbrell and valued at $1,000. The building contained $10,000 worth of wheat, the property of H. A. B. Markshury, and $5,000 worth of wool belonging to Joe Hays, of Pineville. The origin of the fire is unknown.

The Chautauque Assembly will meet at Lexington today. Senator John W. Daniel, of Virginia, will deliver an oration on the 4th of July.

The Rev. William M. Ogden, rector of the Church of the Holy Cross, at Warrenton, N. Y., lost dead in his pulpit while preaching a sermon Sunday.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

FARM FOR SALE.

I wish to sell privately my farm of 100 acres, situated on the Knob Lick Turnpike 1 1/2 miles from Stanford and known as the Old Henry Bright place. The farm dwelling contains 8 comfortable rooms and out-houses all in good repair. Good water and locality healthy. Address: J. SAMUEL, Danville, Ky.

FIRST NATIONAL BANK

OF STANFORD, KY.

Capital Stock.....$200,000

Surplus.....16,500

Attention of the public is invited to the fact that this is the only National Bank in Stanford. Under the provisions of the National Bank Act, depositors are secured not only by the capital stock, but by the stockholders' liability for an amount equal to the stock, so that depositors of this institution are secured by a fund of $200,000. Five annual statements of the condition of the bank are made each year to the United States government and its assets are examined at stated times by government agents, thus securing additional and perfect safety to depositors.

This institution, originally established as the Deposit Bank of Stanford in 1858, then reorganized as the National Bank of Stanford in 1893 and re-incorporated in 1894, has had practically an uninterupted existence of 32 years. It is better supplied with facilities for transacting business promptly and liberally than ever before in its life, and has a large and honorable career. Accounts of corporations, individuals, firms and individuals respectively solicited.

The Directors of this Bank is composed of:

T. J. Foster, of Stanford;

Foreman Reul, Lincoln county;

J. W. Haydon, Stanford;

M. H. Baughman, Lincoln;

M. J. Miller, Mt. Vernon;

S. T. Harris, Lincoln;

J. S. Hocker, Stanford;

G. A. Harker, Lincoln;

T. P. Hill, Stanford;

W. W. Tate, Stanford;

W. P. Tate, Stanford;

Dog Days in the Year 12,801.

As most readers well know, dog days include the period from July 3 to Aug. 11, and take their name from Sirius, known as the "Dog Star." Sirius is the most brilliant of the fixed stars, and is at the head of the constellation Canis Major, or Great Dog. This star, during the period which we refer to as dog days, rises with the sun or within the same hour. Owing to this, the astronomers say that the dog star rises "heliocally" from July 3 to Aug. 11.

The Egyptians, who worshiped the dog as a sacred beast, as did several others of the ancients, attributed the extreme heat of summer to the influence of the Canis Major constellation; the present Egyptians, however, knew nothing of this myth, with the exception of the sect known as the Copts. But with other nations it is different. With many the superstition has been perpetuated and handed down to generation after generation until the present time, when the most intelligent people of the realm speak of dog days as a season of baleful glares and breezes.

But in the far future this will all be changed. By a regular shifting of the point where the sun crosses the equator, which is caused by what is termed the "precession of the equinoxes," the time will come, in about 11,000 years, when this evil designing Great Dog constellation will only rise with the sun in mid-winter. Wonderful, indeed, is great Dame Nature, which causes the huge planets to swing to and fro like gigantic pendulums strong on invisible wires, bringing the seasons in regular rotation with unerring certainty.—St. Louis Republic.

Dr. McDaniel's Smoking Tree.

Mrs. McDaniel, while sitting on the veranda, saw a puff of smoke emerge from one of the limbs. She rubbed her eyes to see if it was not an optical delusion, but when she looked again she saw another puff of smoke spring from another limb.

She called to her husband that the tree was on fire. The doctor came out and was no less astonished than his wife, for the whole tree was puffing smoke. It came out in jets from the limbs like a boy smoking a cigarette. The doctor climbed into the tree, but could see nothing unusual about it, not a place in the bark being broken. The smoke was coming from the bark and could be plainly seen as it floated off on the breeze. There was no odor to it whatever, but it was white in color and looked like tobacco smoke.

Dr. McDaniel called in his neighbors, and they too were mystified. Soon the news of the smoking tree spread, and people from all over town flocked to the doctor's home. From 4 o'clock until 6 the tree continued to emit puffs of smoke while a crowd of about 150 people watched it.—Atlanta Journal.

College Songs as They Really Are.

The Wild Glee club ought to begin to make itself heard now. The nights are getting quite balmy, and all the yard dwellers sit in their open windows longing to howl "More! More!" when the sweet strains of "The Mithras Musketiers," "Lizette," etc., float through the yard.

New members should be elected to the W. G. C. A few men who can hold the air and don't care about singing tenor would be great acquisitions. There is one man now who persists in singing first tenor in every song, and it would be very painful if he didn't happen to strike the right notes occasionally, entirely by accident. Such things will happen, though.

If somebody would learn the words to something he would confer a favor, because there is a certain queerness in thirty or forty voices all saying, "Pom-pom-pom-pom-pom." These songs without words are very jarring; you really ought to learn a few verses for them.—Harvard Lampoon.

Elise's Numerous Grandchildren.

Elise Chase, daughter of Charles and Clara Chase, of Yarmouth, has more grandchildren and granddaughters than any child in Massachusetts, all of whom are now living. I give below the names:

Edward and Mary Chase, grandfather and grandmother.

Charles and Emma Ellis, grandfather and grandmother.

This is very remarkable, six grandfathers and six grandmothers, and all living, making a collection that has no equal in this country.—Cape Cod Item.

Fireflies Illuminated the River.

A special from Ringold tells of a wonderful phenomenon which visited that historic city recently. Millions upon millions of fireflies issued from neighboring mountain ridges and took down the course of the Chickamauga river, which skirts that city on its southern border. The pyrotechnic display was grand. Trunks of trees skirting the river were plainly visible a quarter of a mile distant, and the entire mountain side was illuminated. The horde of fireflies were fully forty feet high, and it took a quarter of an hour to pass down the stream.—Tennessee Cor. Atlanta Constitution.

Platinum and Silver on the Sun.

Up to 1888 platinum had not as yet exhibited its presence in the sun's atmosphere. In that year some slight traces of it were found. Recent investigation establishes beyond a doubt the fact that it exists in the "great orb of day," as well as upon the earth. The same investigations, which of course were made with the solar spectrum, confirm the belief in the presence of silver and bismuth in the sun also.—St. Louis Republic.
